Certified Quality

Our acoustic pods, manufactured by Silen, hold certification under the premier North American Standard UL 962 for Canada and the USA. This certificate confirms that these products have undergone comprehensive testing as complete units.

ASTM E84
CLASS A

As part of the certification, Silen's products have successfully passed the ASTM E84 standard fire tests and have been granted a Class A rating in fire resistance.

Our commitment to adhering to the strictest regulations is reflected in materials used in our pods, which are entirely compliant. This dedication has resulted in all Silen booths achieving Carbon Neutrality certification. This certification means that we have followed The Carbon Neutral Protocol, to make a clear, credible, and transparent claim of our carbon neutral action.
